1. Two hundred of the 1,000 Albanian refugees in the Gerovo Refugee Camp who decided to remain in Yugoslavia have been released from the camp and given 20,000 dinars.<sup>1</sup>
2. The prestige of the National Committee for a Free Albania (NCFA) and of the West is decreasing because nothing is being done to help the Albanian refugees in Yugoslavia who wish to leave for the West.
3. The Prizren Committee (League of Albanian Political Refugees) is re-orienting its objectives and plans to devote itself to fighting the Albanian emigre groups in Western countries. The Committee's official newspaper Flamuri i Liris will resume publication.

1. Comment: One thousand Albanian refugees appears to be excessive. According to recent observations the Gerovo Camp accommodates only 800 refugees from all satellite countries including Albanian refugees.
